high performance learning. The second was to encourage schools to establish innovations in programs and practices that result, and I think that's the key word for many of us, result in restructuring of school organization, school management and instructional programs. It goes on to indicate that such grants are intended to provide selected school districts funding for allowable costs for implementing the pilot projects and model programs. Now I think most people when they look at this program or plan do not see it as a means for providing funding for normal school activities, normal day-to-day operations, but something that would enhance the ability for a school district to provide a better educational opportunity into the future. I have a difficult time seeing where, without a development plan in place, that a minigrant of $5,000 provided to the smaller schools would be able to comply with the 16 items that Senator Janssen has mentioned and comply...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR MAURSTAD: ...and comply with the original intent of the legislation. So I guess I would end by asking Senator Janssen one question. Senator Janssen, do you envision that these dollars would in fact be used for enhancing future educational opportunities, or do you see these grants being used to assist in the normal, day-to-day operations of a school district at this time?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Janssen.

SENATOR JANSSEN: I would imagine they would assist in the day-to-day operation of the school as long as they fell under the criteria, the 16 listed items, Senator Maurstad.

SENATOR MAURSTAD: Thank you, Madam President. Yield the balance.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Maurstad. Senator Hartnett.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Madam Chairman, members of the body, with this fund, I guess I've talked to some administrators of smaller schools and they feel that they're at a disadvantage of
